Security Deposit Evidence Report: Living Room

Move-In / Move-Out Photo Evidence Tool | GDG Build with AI x Hacktoberfest 2026

DISCLAIMER: This tool helps you document conditions. It is not legal advice.

Evidence Integrity & Metadata

Image Type	Timestamp	SHA-256 File Hash
Before (Move-In)	2026:07:24 10:44:22	cdbfc7ea02e5b1640cfaa06fffcba38fb18ea22e53f3117d341756514687cd3b
After (Move-Out)	2026:08:19 17:30:59	1ef28cfc82cf667d99be82f94c693e91ed52254f2e3b26bf8a1b62f731653c32

Visual Comparison

Tenant-Confirmed Differences

Category	Location	Description & Details
Damage	Wall	Scuff mark and small dent near baseboard (Severity: Minor, Confidence: High)

Draft Security Deposit Dispute Letter Template

To: Leasing Office / Property Management
Subject: Security Deposit Return & Itemization Dispute - Virginia Residential Landlord and Tenant Act

Dear Property Management,

I am writing regarding the return of my security deposit for the unit at Living Room. Pursuant to the Virginia Residential Landlord and Tenant Act (VRLTA), I have compiled formal evidence including timestamped move-in and move-out photographs secured via SHA-256 cryptographic file hashes.

Based on our joint records and inspection documentation, the items noted above were either pre-existing or disputed. Please provide a full itemized accounting and refund of the undisputed security deposit funds within the statutory deadlines.

Sincerely,
[Tenant Name]